To the Hon John. A Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia

Humbly complaining your oratrix Alpha Parratt wife of D.C. Parratt, who sues by Wm A McNeil her next friend. will respectfully show to your Honor, That she is now about 25 years of age, That. on the 6th day of November 1879. at the age of something over 21 years she was Married to the said D.C. Parratt, and That since that Time she has been to him a constant faithful dutiful and loving wife, That on the other hand her husband has been negligent careless excessively intemperate, violent in language and action, quarrelsome and abusive, in treatment towards her, and That recently to wit on the 19th day of March 1883, and again on the 21st he ordered her to leave his house and not return to them again, That he has since said last mentioned day compelled her to leave him and to carry away with her, her clothing and other articles of household and Kitchen furniture, That she has had to seek the protection, of her step father the said. Wm A McNeil who is the husband of her mother. Your oratrix will further show your Honor That at the time of her marriage she was seized and possessed of many notes bonds and other property amounting in the aggregate to the sum of from $2200.00 to $2500.00

That a part of said sum to wit about $500.00 or $600 was money due her from her Guardian Wm T McNeil That the sum of $1500 or $1600 was money due her from W T Kelly as the purchase price of a tract of land which descended to her from her father, John Z Pennington. That for the money due her from her guardian the said Wm T McNeil, he the said McNeil by and with the consent of her husband very shortly after their marriage sold her a certain lot or parcel of land situated in said County containing 9 or 10 acres on which is situated a dwelling house store house and other good buildings, and being the same lot or parcel of land which the said McNeil purchased from Dr. N. E. Beaty, and is the house lot and premises in which your oratrix and her said husband have lived upto the time he drove her from home as above stated. This lot or parcel of land was sold to your oratrix at the price of $500.00 and is worth that much money, or perhaps something more than that sum. Your oratrix will now further show your honor that said tract or lot of land was not conveyed to her, but that it was a part of a larger tract or boundary of land owned by the said N. E. Beaty and had been cut off of said tract by said Beaty and conveyed to said McNeil, but that before said conveyance had been recorded her said husband purchased from the said Beaty the remaining portion of said land, That after he had done so her Guardian the said McNeil handed the deed which the said Beaty had made to him to her husband the said Parrott and told him to hand it back to the said Beaty and let the said Beaty by one conveyance or deed convey the whole tract together which was done by the said Beaty conveying the whole tract, as well that purchased by her, as that purchased by him to her husband the said D.C. Parrott. This however was done without her consent and was not intended, as she is informed by any of the parties to effect her rights in any way, and she is advised that it does not effect her said rights in any way. That the property is her own property, That having bought it and paid for it with her own money that it is her individual property and that as such she is entitled to hold it as her separate and sole estate, and that although the legal title, by said deed aforesaid is vested in her husband, that he only holds it as trustee for her use and benefit. Your orator will now further show your Honor That she has recently learned that her husband has executed a deed of Trust, on said tract of land including as well her part as his own, to secure a debt of $500 due from him to H. J. Morgan and to secure and indemnify him in other matters which deed of Trust ~~will~~ become payable, or a sale may be made under it. on and after the 15th day of March 1882 in this deed of Trust J R Gibson is Trustee. A copy of the same is here filed as part here- of marked (A) Your orator will now show your Honor that of the sum due her by the said V. H. Kelly for her land, that her husband has collected and appropriated to his own use the sum of $ 900.00 to $ 1000. That the balance some $ 700.00 or $ 800.00 is still due and owing to her by the said Kelly. That her said husband has the said Kelly's note in his possession, and that although he has driven her from her home as aforesaid, he still holds said note and refuses to give it up to her, and she will here further show your Honor that she has not yet conveyed said land to said Kelly and that she has notified said Kelly not to pay said money to her said husband or his order or to any one ~~else~~ claiming under him, a copy of said notice is here filed marked (B). Your orator will now here show your Honor that her husband the said D. C. Parrott is the owner as before stated of that part of said tract con- veyed by the said N. L. Beaty to him which does not belong to her, That said interest is worth as she under- stands some $ 600 $ 700 or $ 800. That he is also the owner of two sevenths of a tract of land known as the Hopskins tract ~~also~~ also The dower interest of the widow Hopskins in the whole of said Tract, That he recently sold a tract of land which he had purchased under a decree of your Honors Court known as the Isaiah H Burk land and that there is due him on that sale some $800, but that perhaps he owes that much still towards the purchase price Thereof, That he has a therefore of considerable size and amounting to a considerable amount due to him, but that he is largely indebted and in an amount equal to, or perhaps larger than the sums due him, That he is possessed of a considerable amount of personal property consisting of horses cattle hogs, &c. amounting in aggregate value to some $, $00. to $1000 Your orator will further show your Honor That she has been tenderly and carefully raised, and That she has always been used to kind treatment and while her parents were not wealthy that she has never been allowed to want for anything, She will now further show your honor That since being driven from home That she has nothing to depend upon for a support and maintainance care and except her own efforts and the property which she has above shown to be hers, and she further shows your Honor That this unfortunate state of circumstances is brought about Through no fault of hers, That as before stated she has all the time since her marriage been a true loving and faithful wife striving in every way known to her to make her home pleasant, her husband happy and to advance his interests in every way and she would still be with him, at her home and at his home striving, lovingly for the advancement of his interests as well as her own if he would permit her to do so, and even now she would be willing to return to him and assume all the relations of wife, if he would permit her to do so, and treat her as a husband should treat a wife, but she is well acquainted with his stubborn disposition she knows the hold that strong drink has upon him and she has little if any hope that he will ever again permit her to return to her home and treat her as a wife, and such being the case, she thinks and asserts that her husband should be compelled to support and maintain her. and especially so since he has got as before stated and used for his own use some $900. or $1000. of her money, and she now offers that if he will repay said sum to her and give up to her, note on V.H. Kelly and surrender to her home and lot she will forever release all claim on him for support and maintenance Now the premises considered the object of this bill is to have a decree rendered divorcing her husband & restoring to her the home and lot above described free from claim of her husband or any one else claiming under him. to have the said V.H.

Kelly enjoined and inhibited from paying the sum still due from him to your oratrix to her said husband or his order, assignee or any one claiming under him and to enjoin and inhibit the said D.C. Parrott from collecting selling or in any way disposing of said note, and to have the same paid in full to your oratrix to inhibit & enjoin H.J. Morgan, Custui que trust and J.R Gibson Trustee from proceeding in any way ~~proceeding~~ to execute said Trust deed until your oratrix rights are fully settled and protected, and to compel the said D.C. Parrott in proper way and by proper means to support and maintain your oratrix, and to enjoin him from selling or in anyway disposing of any of his property until said support and maintenance is fully provided for. To This end she prays that D.C. Parrott, H.J. Morgan J.R Gibson Trustee and V.H Kelly be each made parties defendant to This bill and that They each be required to answer its several allegations on oath, That she be divorced & means it thro That the said H.J. Morgan & J.R Gibson Trustee be enjoined and inhibited from selling or in anyway proceeding under said Trust deed until your oratrix rights to said house and lot are ascertained, That V.H Kelly be enjoined and inhibited from paying said Money due from him to your oratrix to any other person than herself That the said D.C. Parrott be enjoined and inhibited from selling transfering or in any way disposing of said notes to the prejudice of your oratrix rights and that he be directed to surrender said notes up to her and that the said Kelly be required to pay the same to her. That said deed from N.E. Beatty to the said D.C. Parrott. in so far as it affects your oratrix rights be set aside and that said house lot and appurtenances be conveyed to her That for her support and maintenance out of her husbands estate be set apart and accrued to her. That the said D.C. Parrott be enjoined and inhibited from selling incumbering or in any way disposing of his property or any part of it until her support and maintenance is fully provided for or until the money due her from her husband is paid back to her and for such other further general and special relief as is suited to her case and as for a Court of equity to grant and as in duty She will ever pray &c May Spa issue &c, Virginia, Lee county circuit court.

The deposition of Wm N Mcneil taken pursuant to notice, at the law office of Richmond, Duncan & Orr in Jonesville Va. Septr 5th 1883, which deposition is intended to be read as evidence in behalf of the plaintiff in a certain suit in Chancery now pending in the circuit court of Lee County Virginia, in which Alpha Parratt by &c is plaintiff and D. C. Parratt is defendant, The said Wm N Mcneil a witness of lawful age and being first duly sworn deposes & says.

Question by Plaintiff Are you acquainted with the defendant D. C. Parratt, and how you known him since his intermarriage with Plaintiff? I am and have

Ans. known him since his intermarriage with Plaintiff

Question by same, Is he intemperate or intemperate, and if intemperate, what is his disposition while under the influence of intoxicating liquors, Is he ill or otherwise

Answer. He is intemperate, and when intoxicated is disposed to be ill, (when irritated) and like most all other men when intoxicated, is easily irritated.

2 Question by Same. Is it not a fact that for the last year or two that he has been under the influence of intoxicating liquors all the time?

Answer. I think he has nearly all the time, sometimes worse than others,

2 Question by same. Is not the said Deft a violent quarrelsome and abusive man when under the influence of liquor?

Answer. I consider him a quarrelsome and abusive man especially when he has any provocation, when intoxicated, and have been informed by the plaintiff that he was violent in his treatment towards her when intoxicated.

2 Question by same - Will you please state anything you may know of violent treatment of Deft towards Plaintiff, his driving her away from home, his actions toward her since and all you may know about it.

Summer I dont know of any acts of violence within my own knowledge, have only heard of them from the plaintiff. Sometime in March last the plaintiff came to my house crying, and said defendant had driven the hired girl off, and had given her to understand that he was going to separate from her. I told her to hold on that when he got sober it would be all right again, she replied she did not think it would, that she believed he would carry out his intentions, but that she intended to stay at home if he killed her, she went back home that night, or at least left my house for that purpose. She came back next day, and said he had driven her off, & had ordered her to move her things from there soon next morning this was on Wednesday. She went back next day declaring her intention to see what she could do towards pacifying him, and took her mother with her. She came back & reported that she could accomplish nothing towards a pacification. On next day, Friday, she went back again, and came back with the first load of her things which were hauled by his wagon & team, and reported to me that he still insisted on her moving her things, and he did send his wagon & team & hands to haul them.

Since the plaintiff has been at my house the defendant has come about my house frequently, and very often was considerably intoxicated, and would ride up and down the road by my house and fire off his pistol, and would demean himself in a very strange manner.

And further this deponent saith not.

W. S. McNeil

The foregoing deposition of W. S. McNeil was taken subscribed and sworn to before me at the time and place and for the purposes in the caption mentioned. Given under my hand Septr 5th 1883.
